Headline:
Another cool night, turning cloudy but remaining dry.

This Evening and Tonight:
A cloudier night than recently, although still plenty of clear spells in the south, and staying dry for all. Most will remain frost-free, but patchy frost possible in the south. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Tuesday:
Dry and bright to start, but clouds developing through the day bringing a very slight chance of light showers from lunchtime onwards. Light rain moving in southwards during the evening. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Cloudy start to Wednesday, with some scattered showers. Skies clear afterwards, for fine and dry conditions with patchy fair-weather cloud into Thursday and Friday. Overnight frosts remain likely.
